

ANTARCTICA AND THE SOUTHERN OCEAN

Australian Government
 Department of the Environment and Heritage
 Australian Antarctic Division
 Produced by the Australian Antarctic Data Centre
 Published November 2004 Map Catalogue No: 13111

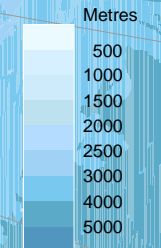

Territorial Claims

The northern extent of territorial claims is the coastline of Antarctica. The extension of the claims to 60 degrees south is for illustrative purposes only.

- Adélie Land (France)
- Chilean Antarctica
- British Antarctic Territory
- Argentine Antarctica
- Australian Antarctic Territory
- Dronning Maud Land (Norway)
- Ross Dependency (New Zealand)
- Unclaimed
- 88.1 CCAMLR Statistical Reporting Subarea
- Ice shelf, ice tongue
- Australian Winter Station

For information about data sources used in this map refer to:
http://aadc-maps.aad.gov.au/aadc/mapcat/display_map.cfm?map_id=13111

Bathymetry

Polar Stereographic Projection, True scale at 71° S